

Biography

Reviving the raw classic rock sounds of yesteryear, Hunted by Elephants are a high-energy 5-piece hard rock band honouring the time-tested union of soaring vocals, growling riffs and energising drumming. Formed mid-2018 by Apostolos Liapis (vocals), Roman Flourendzou (guitar) and Raymond Phelan (bass) the band were later joined by Alex Buttice (drums) and now George Chronis (guitar, keys).

Hunted By Elephants have released two albums prior to 2022; their latest album Carry On has been highly rated by Classic Rock and ERB magazines and earned the band national recognition. Having now wrapped up a fruitful 2022/23 consisting of main-stage festival slots as far afield as Athens, Greece including Maid of Stone (with Glenn Hughes & Airbourne), Nene Valley

"DOWN TO THE WIRE" NEW SINGLE!

Down To The Wire (DTTW) tells the age old story of a person who has struggled, had difficulties and ups and downs in their life but despite that, sticks to their core tenets and values to remain honest with themselves and others in the pursuit of their dreams. They find their meaning and reason to keep going and continue to fight against the odds in order to find happiness and belonging.
